SUMMARY OF MAJOR FUNCTION

Oversees and coordinates cultural anthropological field work, literature searches, and subsequent report writing related to assigned project areas and topics. Provides applied cultural anthropological training to Tribal Research Technicians assisting with project tasks. Works within the parameters of assigned contract and grant budgets and deliverables and completes benchmarks for the same within allotted timeframes. Organizes and leads the research team to perform and document office, home, and in-field interviews related to research subject locations. Collaborates with Burns Paiute tribal community members to document oral history and tradition, as well as further document important historical to present day tribal practices.

Dear Burns Paiute Community Members:

My name is Ralph C. Honhongva. I am the Community & Economic Development Director for the Burns Paiute Tribe. We are in the process of creating an Economic Development Committee that will help the Tribe to make a better place to live, work and play. I would like to invite you to join the Economic Development Committee. This Committee is a great opportunity to apply your passion and dedication to making your community a healthier place now and for future generations.

The Economic Development Committee encourages tribal and non-members to join together for economic development and future projects for the Burns Paiute Tribe. Please submit your letter of interest to my office at the Administrative Office and be part of a growing movement that takes future generations into consideration.

The responsibilities of the Economic Development Committee members may include.

- Facilitate the community and economic development planning process.
- Facilitate the development of a community economic development plan that includes vision, short & long term goals and objectives.
- Follow all policies & procedures (i.e. Articles & Bylaws Ordinances).
- Support & possibly establish economic development sub-committees (i.e. Planning & Tourism Committees).
- Develop economic & demographic profiles of the region and community.
- Research and provide recommendations on community economic development opportunities & projects.
- Evaluate results of economic development studies and agreements and make recommendations to Tribal Council.
- Applying your knowledge, education and experience.
- Take minutes at meetings and maintain economic development committee files and reports.

Innovative ideas and knowledge are important assets to this project and we hope you are able to contribute. As a Committee member, this community role model will inspire others to "think outside the box," and work together to help change our future to one that is healthy and prosperous. I hope that you will join this effort as we work together to help support our community and its residents.

Please consider attending our kickoff meeting on Tuesday, January 31, 2017, 5:30 PM, Gathering Place. If you have any questions, please contact my office at 541-573-8045 or ralph.honhongva@burnspaiute-nsn.gov. We look forward to seeing you there!

Sincerely,

Ralph C. Honhongva, CEDD

This Work for Hire Agreement is made effective as of this 1st day of September, 2016 by and between the Burns Paiute Tribe located in Burns, Oregon, herein to be referred to as the "Client" and Burns Consulting Services located in South Bend, Washington, herein to be referred to as the "Consultant".

1. DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES. Beginning on the 1st day of September, 2016, the Consultant will provide the services described on the attached Exhibit A, which is made a part of this Agreement by reference, to the Client. The Consultant's services will include any and all activities necessary to provide the described Services. Consultant agrees to complete the tasks outlined in Exhibit A in a timely manner not to exceed 12 month from the start date.

The Client agrees to cooperate with the Consultant to provide any and all information, assistance and signatures required for timely completion of Services.

To be enforceable, any change in services from the above shall be first put in writing and signed by both parties.

2. PAYMENT FOR SERVICES. Because activities to complete this project will take place over a period of several months, the Consultant will provide a monthly invoice on the last day of each month for a period of up to 12 months in the amount of $3,875 per month for program development activities plus any charge for grant writing that was incurred for that billing period. Invoices are due and payable within 15 days of issuance.

Both parties agree that all expenses incurred by the Consultant for the completion of the project, including mileage, per diem and lodging, etc. are included in the total cost for this project. The Consultant is responsible for making all required travel arrangements.

(This is an estimation based on similar projects performed previously by the Consultant. All travel costs required to complete the program development project will be paid for by the Consultant and are included in the total. Any cost required for grant writing must be preapproved by the Client and is not included in this Total.)

- 3. TERMS/TERMINATION. This Agreement shall terminate automatically on completion of the Services outlined in Exhibit A. The Client may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving 10 days written notice of termination to the Consultant. The Consultant shall be entitled to full payment for services performed satisfactorily prior to the effective date of termination.
- 4. RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES. It is understood by the parties that the Consultant is an independent contractor with respect to the Client, and not an employee of the Client. The Client will not provide fringe benefits, including health insurance benefits, paid vacation, or any other employee benefit for the benefit of the Consultant.
- 5. WORK PRODUCT OWNERSHIP. Any copyrightable works, ideas, or documents (collectively, the "Work Product") developed in whole or in part by the Consultant in connection with the Services shall be the exclusive property of the Client. Upon request, the Consultant shall sign all documents necessary to confirm or perfect the exclusive ownership of the Client to the Work Product.
- 6. CONFIDENTIALITY. The Consultant will not at any time or in any manner, either directly or indirectly, use for the personal benefit of the Client, or to divulge, disclose, or communicate in any manner any information that is proprietary to the Client. The Consultant will protect such information and treat is as strictly confidential. This provision shall continue to be effective after the termination of this Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Consultant will immediately return to the Client all records, notes, documentation and other items that were used, created, or controlled by the Consultant during the term of this Agreement.
- 7. INJURIES. The Consultant acknowledges the Consultant's obligation to obtain appropriate insurance coverage for the benefit of the Consultant (and the Consultant's employees, if any). The Consultant waives any rights to recovery from the Client for any injuries that the Consultant (and/or the Consultant's employees) may sustain while performing services under this agreement and that are a result of the negligence of the Consultant or the Consultant's employee(s).
- 8. INDEMNIFICATION. The Consultant agrees to indemnify and hold the Client harmless from all claims, losses, expenses, fees including attorney fees, costs and judgments that may be asserted against the Client that result from the acts or omissions of the Consultant or the Consultant's employees, if any, and the Consultant's agents.
- 9. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties, and there are no other promises or conditions in any other agreement whether oral or written.
- 10. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remaining provisions shall continue to be valid and enforceable. If a court finds that any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, but that by limiting such provision it would become valid and enforceable, than such provision shall be deemed to be written, construed, and enforced as so limited.
- 11. APPLICABLE LAW. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Oregon.

Nothing in this agreement shall be interpreted as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Burns Paiute tribe.

Scope of Work Alternative Justice and Wellness Center 2015-2016

Under the direction of the Burns Painte Tribal Council, the following Scope of Work was prepared. This document outlines and evaluates the costs for activities to be performed by Burns Consulting Services (BCSI) over a twelve-month period to develop the Alternative Justice and Wellness Center (Gym/Pool) Project. These costs are estimates based upon previous work performed by BCSI and current market prices for services. The Scope of Work activities are as follows:

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT:

Reconnaissance and Document Review
Revise as necessary the critical pathways report (CPR)

• Ongoing quarterly on-site progress report to Tribal Council and planning team.

Carrying out the steps as outlined in the CPR as follows:

- On the ground activities (conference calls, meetings with agencies and project staff, telephone work, etc.)
- Assembling the work group (Burns Paiute Tribal Council, environmental/cultural staff, IT, etc.)
- Interface with enabling subcontractors (utilities technicians, architects, and/or engineers, etc.)
- Permit acquisitions as required (prepare application documents)
- Prepare and submit 'Requests for Bids' for contractors and subcontractors
- · Conduct funding searches
- Grant writing, meeting with investors*
- Preparing grant proposals, resolutions and other required documents*

Estimated time to complete 12 months.

*All grant writing activities will be pre-approved.

Tribal Community Members & Staff:

As Secretary of the BP Tribal Council I have few items I would like to share.

First of all, there is a process to get on the Tribal Council (TC) agenda. TC has weekly meetings on the first Thursday of the month, and every Wednesday thereafter. Meeting start at 4:00 and are hosted at the TC Office. You must request your agenda items from the TC Secretary on the Friday before the actual meeting date. The agenda is completed and sent out on Tuesday (agenda is posted at Tribal Administration office). For example: The week of January 23-27, the regularly scheduled meeting would be on Wednesday, January 25th. Agenda items would be due by Friday, January 20th.

Secondly, TC welcomes input from Tribal members, Tribal staff, and other guests. TC asks all guests to please present themselves in a professional and ethical manner; keep in mind we intend to act as positive role models for the Tribal community. With transparency, we aim to promote collaboration and teamwork between the council and all other Tribal departments, programs and Tribal members. We are excited about all the progress that has been made in 2016 and look forward to 2017.

If you have any questions or concerns please contact me at the information listed below:

Sincerely,

Tracy Kennedy

Unhealthy Relationships

Emotional Abuse Warning Signs

- 1. Your partner calls you names.
- 2. Your partner yells and curses at you.
- 3. Your partner uses pressure (guilt-trips, threats, etc.) to force you to make the choices he/she wants you to make.
- 4. Your partner orders you around, makes decisions without you, and demands for you to do things his/her way.
- 5. Your partner insults you in front of family and friends.
- 6. Your partner talks badly about your family and friends, and makes it hard for you to see them.
- 7. Your partner lies to you, cheats on you, and gets jealous for no reason.
- 8. Your partner is cold to you. He/she is not supportive, loving, or respectful.
- 9. Your partner refuses to let you work, makes problems for you at work, takes your paycheck, or hides your keys
- 10. Your partner threatens to hurt you if you try to leave the relationship.
- 11. Your partner follows you and checks up on you.

If you answered yes to any of these questions, it is possible that you may be in an abusive relationship. If you or someone is experiencing an unhealthy relationship, please talk to someone as soon as possible, someone you trust, a family member or friend.
